Simla, the 8th April 1947

A competitive examination for admission to (1) the Indian Railway Service of Engineers, (2) the Signal Engineering Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways, (3) the Electrical Engineering Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways and (4) the Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I, will be held in Madras, Bombay, Calcutta, Allahabad, Lahore and Delhi, beginning on the 1st September, 1947, under the rules for recruitment to the Telegraph Engineering Service, (Class I) published in the Gazette of India, dated the 5th April, 1947, and the rules for recruitment to the Indian Railway Service of Engineers, the Signal Engineering and Electrical Engineering Departments published in the Gazette of India, dated the 12th April, 1947. Candidates accepted for admission to the examination will be informed at what place or places and at what hour they should present themselves.

Note.—Candidates who compete for the Indian Railway Service of Engineers, or Signal Engineering Department, or Electrical Engineering Department may be appointed to the Stores Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways.

2. The examination will be a combined examination for the purpose of filling vacancies arising in 1948 in the Services and Departments mentioned above. A candidate may apply to be admitted to one or more of these Services. Only one application need be sent in and it should be stated therein whether a candidate wishes to enter for one or more Services or Departments. He will be required to pay the fees mentioned in the Rules, or the Compendium of the Rules mentioned in paragraph 4 below, once only and will not be required to pay separate fees for each Service or Department for which he applies. The Government of India may assign a successful candidate to any service for which he is competing on a consideration of all the circumstances including any personal preference expressed by the candidate.

3 (a) The number of vacancies likely to be filled on the results of this examination in the Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I, is three. The communal distribution of these vacancies will be announced later.

(b) The number of vacancies and their communal distribution in the Indian Railway Service of Engineers and the Signal Engineering Department, the Electrical Engineering Department and the Stores Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways are not known at present and will be announced later.

4. Applications with connected papers should be submitted in accordance with the instructions to candidates and should reach the Federal Public Service Commission on or before the 26th May, 1947. Candidates should apply to the Provincial Governments or Administrations (to the Deputy Commissioner, Delhi, in the case of Delhi Province and to the Punjab and N.W.F.P. Joint Public Service Commission, Lahore, in the case of the Punjab) or Durbars for copies of the application and other forms and papers connected with the examination. They will, however, not be supplied with copies of the complete Rules, but only with a compendium of the Rules which will contain the essential conditions of eligibility.

5. No allegation that an application form, or letter respecting such form, has been lost or delayed in the post will be considered, unless the person making such allegation produces a Post Office registration receipt or certificate of posting. Candidates who delay their applications or their requests for forms until a late date will do so at their own risk.

6. (a) Candidates for the Indian Railway Service of Engineers, and Telegraph Engineering Service, Class I, examination must have attained the age of 20 and must not have attained the age of 26 on the 1st August 1947, i.e., they must have been born not earlier than the 2nd August 1921, and not later than the 1st August 1927.

Candidates belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes must have attained the age of 20 and must not have attained the age of 29 on the 1st August 1947, i.e., they must have been born not earlier than the 2nd August 1918 and not later than the 1st August 1927.

(b) Candidates for the Signal Engineering Department or the Electrical Engineering Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of State Railways must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 26 on the 1st August 1947, i.e., they must have been born not earlier than the 2nd August 1921, and not later than the 1st August 1926. Candidates already in Railway Service, who are over the age of 26 and under the age of 30 on the 1st August 1947, may, however, be admitted to the examination if they hold a substantively permanent appointment and are recommended by their Department or Office.

Candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 29 on the 1st August, 1947, i.e., they must have been born not earlier than the 2nd August 1918, and not later than the 1st August 1926, but Government Servants belonging to these castes who fulfil the conditions laid down in para. 3(b) of the compendium of the Rules will be admitted if they were born not earlier than the 2nd August 1914.

Note.—"Scheduled Castes" means any of the Castes mentioned in the Government of India (Scheduled Castes) Order, 1936.

These age limits can in no case be relaxed.

7. Any person who has appeared at an examination, the passing of which will render him eligible to appear at the examination now announced, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the latter examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, provided the qualifying examination is to be concluded before the commencement of the examination herein announced. In either of the above cases the candidate's application will be accepted provisionally if he is eligible in all other respects and he will be required to furnish before the 1st October, 1947, to the Federal Public Service Commission, proof of having passed such qualifying examination.

8. In all correspondence with the Federal Public Service Commission, candidates should state the name of the examination for which they have applied.

T. C. CHOPRA,
Deputy Secretary,
Federal Public Service Commission.
